CLOVIS NORTH EDUCATIONAL CENTER IDAC MEETING MINUTES

Location: Lecture Hall

Date: Monday, May 13, 2024

Time: 5:30pm

Welcome, Introductions & Purpose

Deputy Principal, Mr. Bowns welcomed all attendees to the meeting and explained the purpose of IDAC.

WASC Accreditation

Mr. Bowns reviewed the WASC accreditation process and went over the action plan goals for Clovis North, including increasing student achievement in math and science. Mr. Bowns also discussed the academic interventions that are in place here at CNEC.

Another action plan goal for Clovis North is to improve support for social/emotional health and diversity by implementing and improving access and awareness. Mr. Bowns shared that we have a full-time mental health provider on the CNEC campus.

As a result of the visit, Clovis North's WASC accreditation was renewed for another six years.

SART Survey Feedback

Mr. Bowns explained the process of the SART Survey. This survey is sent out annually by Clovis Unified to all parents. Mr. Bowns went over the results of the SART survey for CNEC.

CUSD Update

- Boundary changes – Mr. Bowns reviewed the boundary changes that will affect the Clovis North area beginning in the 2025-26 school year.
- New Schools – Mr. Bowns shared information regarding the new Terry P. Bradley Educational Center and Hirayama Elementary School. Hirayama will open in 2024-25 and the Terry P. Bradley Educational Center will open the following year in 2025-26.

2024-25 School Year

Mr. Bowns shared information regarding next year at CNEC. He reminded parents we will not have an in-person walk-through registration again, but instead all information will be distributed on-line.

Questions

Mr. Bowns gave parents an opportunity to ask questions.
