

National Honor Society Information Meeting

Welcome!

What is National Honor Society?

National organization founded in 1921 by the National Association of Secondary School Principals

Principals

- Four objectives:
  - To create enthusiasm for scholarship
  - To encourage development of character in the nation's secondary school students
  - To promote leadership
  - To encourage service

The Four Elements of NHS

Scholarship

---

Character

---

Leadership

---

Service

Scholarship

The first step toward NHS membership is earning a weighted 3.8 (or higher) G.P.A., and participation in Honors, and Advanced Placement courses, and AP Exams.

Character

Character is who you are when no one is watching...

(It's already established!)

How is “Character” Determined?

Teachers or Sponsors complete confidential evaluations of student character.

Evaluations are based on classroom contact, extra-curricular activity participation, social media persona, and personal observation.

Attendance

Discipline records. This includes violations with plagiarism and cheating.

Leadership

Leadership includes being elected or selected to work in a LEADERSHIP role.

Club officer

A chairperson for a committee

A representative on a church, parish, or school council

A marching band squad leader

A Scout Patrol leader

A class officer

A concert band section leader

A choir officer

A student council representative

A leadership Camp Youth Staff member

An Athletic team captain

Lead organizer of fundraising event

Service

Service includes volunteer activities for which you DO NOT receive any type of compensation such as a salary or school credit.

Fundraising

Civic activities

Tutoring

Teaching Sunday School

Volunteering at the public library

Church related mission trips

Volunteering at elementary schools

Helping with Eagle Scout/Girl Scout projects

Volunteering at a hospital/nursing home

A Final Note....

- ▶ Membership in the National Honor Society is a privilege, not a right.
- ▶ Members are expected to uphold the four elements of the organization throughout high school and beyond.
- ▶ Failure to uphold these elements based on behavior, attendance, could mean dismissal from NHS.
- ▶ All students will be notified of their status via email. If you are not selected for membership schedule a meeting with Ms. Wood to provide feedback as to what areas might need improvement for subsequent years.
