

The Clovis Unified Arts, Media and Entertainment Sector is composed of the Performing Arts Pathway

The Clovis Unified's Performing Arts Pathway is a high school curriculum that provides a four-year pathway for students pursuing careers in acting, directing, set design, costume design or lighting design after graduation. Areas targeted include English and performing arts elective courses.

For more information on Performing Arts Pathway please contact:

CTE Counselors

Mandie Engelbert
Buchanan High
School 559-327-3000

Kendall East
Clovis West High School
559-327-2000

CTE Learning Directors

Amanda Torres
Buchanan High School
559-327-3000

Anisha Mayberry
Clovis West High School
559-327-2000

Performing Arts
Pathway
2021-2022

Clovis Unified School District

Buchanan High School

Clovis West High School

Performing Arts Pathway Courses

Introductory:

Drama 2 Technical Theater: BHS & CWHS Students will study and apply the principles of group dynamics and collaboration during the pre-production through post production process of theatrical production.

Concentrator:

Advanced Technical Theater: (BHS) is an advanced technical theater arts course designed to build upon skills learned in Drama 2 Technical Theater for students interested in becoming designers and leaders in the technical theatre arts world

Capstone:

CTE Theater Production: (CWHS) Students create entire state productions from acting methodology to stage design.

Business Partners/Advisory Members

Clovis Unified's Mercedes Edwards
Theater staff

Clovis Unified's Performing Arts Center staff

Skills USA

Good Company Players

California State University Fresno
Drama Department

Career Opportunities

Lighting Technician

Stagehand

Prop maker

Sound Engineer

Producer

Faculty

Sandra Hahn, Director of Drama, Clovis West
sandrahahn@cusd.com

Abigail Paxton, Director of Drama, Buchanan
abigailpaxton@cusd.com

Interested in applying for this pathway?

See your counselor or contact any of the above individuals.